MEMORANDUM OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Statute Law (Miscellaneous Amendment) Bill, 2020 is in keeping with the practise of making various amendments which do not merit the publication of separate Bills and consolidating them into one bill.

The Bill contains amendments to the following statutes—

Interpretation and General Provisions Act (Cap. 2)

The Bill proposes to amend the Interpretation and General Provisions Act (Cap. 2) to harmonise the definition of “Kenya Defence Forces” with the contained in the Kenya Defence Forces Act, 2012. It also proposes to recognise the Attorney-General as the office to administer the matters relating to the legal sector.

The Records Disposal Act (Cap. 14)

The Bill proposes to amend the Records Disposal Act to make provisions empowering the Chief Justice to make rules on the disposal records of the Employment and Labour Relations Court.

The Penal Code (Cap. 63)

The Bill proposes to amend the Penal Code to replace the reference to the Commissioner-General of Police with the Inspector-General in line with the National Police Service Act, 2011.

The Criminal Procedure Code (Cap. 75)

The Bill proposes to amend the Criminal Procedure Code to harmonise the terms therein with the National Police Service Act, 2011 and to provide for police supervision for persons previously imprisoned for offences under the Counter-trafficking in Persons Act, 2012 and the Prevention of Organised Crimes Act, 2010. It additionally proposes to amend the Act to allow the Court to order the recovery of any penalty for the failure to observe a condition that has been ordered or agreed to by an accused person before Court for the grant of bail from the sale of both movable and immovable property of the person; to delete offences already provided for in the Sexual Offences Act, 2006; and to allow an appeal from the High Court in the exercise of its original jurisdiction.

The Evidence Act (Cap. 80)

The Bill proposes to amend the Act to expand the definition of “Photograph” and allow for the presentation and admissibility of digital photographs.

The Public Holidays Act (Cap. 109)

The Bill proposes to amend the Public Holidays Act to harmonise the terms applied therein with the Constitution and to rename Moi Day as Utamaduni Day.

The Firearms Act (Cap. 114)

The Bill proposes to amend the Firearms Act to replace the reference to the Commissioner General of Police with the Inspector General in line with the National Police Service Act, 2011.

The Housing Act (Cap. 117)

The Bill proposes to amend the Housing Act to remove the mandatory nature of contributions to the National Housing Fund.

The Official Secrets Act (Cap. 187)

The Bill proposes to amend the Official Secrets Act to harmonise its provisions with the structure of courts and other State offices established by the Constitution. It also proposes to amend the Act to harmonise it with advances in technology.

The Films and Stage Plays Act (Cap. 222)

The Bill proposes to amend the Films and Stage Plays Act to empower the Kenya Film Classification Board to regulate and manage matters touching on classification of films, commercials and other advertisements, and online film content.

The Kenya Roads Board Act, 1999 (No. 7 of 1999)

The Bill seeks to amend the Act to provide for the minimum number of meetings the Board can hold in any given year, and depart from the current situation where the Board must hold a meeting every month.

The Anti-Corruption and Economic Crimes Act, 2003 (No. 3 of 2003)

The Bill proposes to amend the Act to allow a public officer whose case is not concluded within twenty-four (24) months to apply to the Court for his or her suspension to be lifted and to allow the Commission to apply to Court for an order for a State Officer under investigation or charged with corruption or economic crimes to be temporarily restricted from specific access to their office for a period not exceeding ninety (90) days. It additionally proposes to delete Part IIIB of the Act which relates to the defunct Kenya Anti-Corruption Commission Advisory Board.

The Statistics Act, 2006 (No. 4 of 2006)

The Bill propose to amend the Statistics Act to give the Board the power to cancel or revise data if data is found to be inaccurate.

The Employment Act, 2007 (No. 11 of 2007)

The Bill proposes to amend the Employment Act, 2007 to remove references to contributions to the National Housing Fund and also to harmonise the reference to the armed forces with the terms applied in the Kenya Defence Forces Act, 2007 and also to exclude the Coast Guard Service from its provisions.

The Accountants Act, 2008 (No. 15 of 2008)

The Bill seeks to amend the Accountants Act to introduce trainee accountants as a category of persons to be subject to the Act and make some additional provisions in that respect.

The Proceeds of Crime and Anti-Money Laundering Act, 2009 (No. 9 of 2009)

The Bill seeks to amend the Act to include investigators from the Ethics and Anti-Corruption Commission as authorised officers under the Act and to include the Secretary of the Ethics and Anti-Corruption Commission and the Director of Public Prosecutions as members of the Anti-Money Laundering Advisory Board.

The Counter-Trafficking in Persons Act, 2010 (No. 8 of 2010)

The Bill proposes to amend the Act to include the Director of Public Prosecutions in the Counter-Trafficking in Persons Advisory Committee.

The Judicial Service Act, 2011 (No. 1 of 2011)

The Bill proposes to amend the Judicial Service Act to reduce the post-qualification years of experience required for recruitment as a legal researcher from two years to one year.

The Political Parties Act 2011 (No. 11 of 2011)

The Bill proposes to amend the Political Parties Act to clarify the amount of money payable by Government into the Political Parties Fund.

The Kenya National Commission on Human Rights Act 2011 (No. 14 of 2011)

The Bill proposes to amend the KNCHR Act, 2011 to elaborate on the functions of the Commission and to update the provisions relating to appointment of members of the Commission.

The Employment and Labour Relations Court Act, 2011 (No. 20 of 2011)

The Bill proposes to amend the Employment and Labour Relations Court Act, 2011 to empower the Chief Justice to make rules for the delegation of specified powers to the Registrar for purposes of the Civil Procedure Act (Cap. 21).

The Ethics and Anti-Corruption Commission Act, 2011 (No. 22 of 2011)

The Bill proposes to amend the Act to allow the Ethics and Anti-Corruption Commission to institute proceedings for the recovery of corruptly acquired assets located outside Kenya. It further proposes to amend the Act to allow the Ethics and Anti-Corruption Commission to institute proceedings for the recovery of corruptly acquired assets located outside Kenya.

The Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, 2011 (No. 33 of 2011)

The Bill proposes to amend the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, 2011 to increase the period during which a House of Parliament shall consider a nomination and table its report, from fourteen to twenty-eight days.

The Leadership and Integrity Act, 2012 (No. 19 of 2012)

The Bill proposes to amend the Act to allow the Ethics and Anti-Corruption Commission to verify the contents of any self-declaration form filed by a person intending to be appointed to a State office and to advise Parliament or a selection panel on the suitability of the person for appointment. It additionally proposes to introduce the offences of operating an account outside Kenya without approval by the Commission and failing to submit annual statements of such accounts to the Commission. Both Offences attract a penalty of five years imprisonment or a fine of five million shillings, or both. It further proposes to allow the High Court to invalidate the assumption to office of a State Officer where they fail to sign the Leadership and Integrity Code.

The Universities Act, 2012 (No. 42 of 2012)

The Bill proposes to amend the Act to provide for the establishment by Charter of degree-awarding institutions specialising in national security issues, and to apply the provisions of the Act relating to administration and management of universities to those institutions.

The Bill proposes to amend the Energy Act to cure ambiguity and typographical errors, and to streamline membership to various bodies created in the statute.

This Bill is not a Bill concerning county government within the meaning of Article 110 of the Constitution.

The enactment of this Bill will not occasion additional expenditure of public funds.

Dated the 3rd June, 2020.

ADEN DUALE,
Leader of Majority Party.

Interpretation and General Provisions Act (Cap. 2)

Section 3 which is intended to amend—

Interpretation of terms

“armed forces” has the same meaning as in the Armed Forces Act (Cap. 199);

“the Cabinet Secretary” means the Cabinet Secretary for the time being responsible for the matter in question, or the President where executive authority is retained by him:

Provided that for the purposes of the administration of laws relating to the legal sector, the expression shall, subject to any assignment under Article 132 (3)(c) of the Constitution, include the Attorney-General.

The Records Disposal Act (Cap. 14)

Section 2 which is intended to amend—

Power to make rules for the disposal of records

The Chief Justice after consultation with the Kenya National Archives and Documentation Service and the Commission on Administrative Justice and subject to the provisions of the Public Archives Act (Cap.19), may from time to time make rules to provide for the disposal by destruction or otherwise of such records, books and papers, belonging to or being in the custody of the High Court or of courts of civil or criminal jurisdiction subordinate thereto, as he may consider to be of no further use or unworthy of being permanently preserved.

The Penal Code (Cap. 63)

Section 52 which is intended to amend—

52. Power to prohibit publications

(1) Where the Minister, on reasonable grounds, considers that it is necessary in the interests of public order, health or morals, the security of Kenya, and to be reasonably justifiable in a democratic society, the Minister may, by order published in the Gazette, prohibit the importation of any publication.

(2) Where the Minister, on reasonable grounds, considers that it is necessary in the interests of defence, public order, public morality or public health so to do and to be reasonably justifiable in a democratic society, the Minister may, by order in the Gazette, declare any publication to be a prohibited publication.

(3) There is established a Board to be known as the Prohibited Publications Review Board (hereinafter referred to as “the Board”) which shall comprise—

- (a) the Attorney-General or his representative, who shall be the chairman;
- (aa) the Director of Public Prosecutions or his representative;
- (b) the Commissioner of Police or his representative;
- (c) the Director of Medical Services or his representative;
- (d) two persons from the religious community, to be appointed by the Minister; and
- (e) two other persons of integrity, good character and good standing to be appointed by the Minister.

The Criminal Procedure Code (Cap. 75)

Section 2 which is intended to amend—

Interpretation

In this Code, unless the context otherwise requires—

“police officer” means a police officer or an administration police officer;

“police station” means a place designated by the Inspector-General as a police station under section 40 of the National Police Service Act, 2011.

Section 36A which is intended to amend—

36A. Remand by court

(1) Pursuant to Article 49(1) (f) and (g) of the Constitution, a police officer shall present a person who has been arrested in court within twenty-four hours after being arrested.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), if a police officer has reasonable grounds to believe that the detention of a person arrested beyond the twenty-four hour period is necessary, the police officer shall—

- (a) produce the suspect before a court; and
- (b) apply in writing to the court for an extension of time for holding the suspect in custody.

(3) An application under subsection (2) shall be supported by an affidavit sworn by the police officer and shall specify—

- (a) the nature of the offence for which the suspect has been arrested;
- (b) the general nature of the evidence on which the suspect has been arrested;
- (c) the inquiries that have been made by the police in relation to the offence and any further inquiries proposed to be made by the police; and
- (d) the reasons necessitating the continued holding of the suspect in custody.

(4) In determining an application under subsection (2), the court shall consider any objection that the suspect may have in relation to the application and may—

- (a) release the suspect unconditionally;
- (b) release the suspect subject to such conditions as the court may impose to ensure that the suspect—
  - (i) does not, while on release, commit an offence, interfere with witnesses or the investigations in relation to the offence for which the suspect has been arrested;
  - (ii) is available for the purpose of facilitating the conduct of investigations and the preparation of any report to be submitted to the court dealing with the matter in respect of which the suspect stands accused; and
  - (iii) appears at such a time and place as the court may specify for the purpose of conducting preliminary proceedings or the trial or for the purpose of assisting the police with their inquiries; or
- (c) having regard to the circumstances specified under subsection (5), make an order for the remand of the suspect in custody.

(5) A court shall not make an order for the remand in custody of a suspect under subsection (5)(c) unless—

- (a) there are compelling reasons for believing that the suspect shall not appear for trial, may interfere with witnesses or the conduct of investigations, or commit an offence while on release;
- (b) it is necessary to keep the suspect in custody for his protection, or, where the suspect is a minor, for his welfare;
- (c) the suspect is serving a custodial sentence; or
- (d) the suspect, having been arrested in relation to the commission of an offence, has breached a condition for his release.

(6) The court may, for the purpose of ensuring the attendance of a suspect under subsection ((4)(b)(ii) or (iii), require the suspect—

(a) to execute a bond for such reasonable amount as the court considers appropriate in the circumstances; and

(b) to provide one or more suitable sureties for the bond.

(7) Where a court makes an order for the remand of a suspect under subsection (4)(c), the period of remand shall not exceed thirty days.

Section 344A which is intended to amend—

344A. Automatic police supervision

(1) A person who is convicted of an offence under section 296(1), 297(1), 308 or 322 of the Penal Code the Prevention of Terrorism Act or the Sexual Offences Act shall be subject to police supervision for a period of five years from the date of his release from prison.

The Public Holidays Act (Cap. 109)

Section 3 which is intended to amend—

3. Alteration or addition of public holiday

The Minister may at any time if he thinks fit, by notice in the Gazette, declare any day to be a public holiday either in addition to the days mentioned in the Schedule or in substitution for any of those days and either throughout Kenya or in any district, area or part thereof, and thereupon any day so appointed shall be a public holiday in all respects as if it were a day mentioned in the Schedule, in Kenya or the locality specified in the notice; and where, in any year, any day is so declared to be a public holiday in substitution for any of the days mentioned in the Schedule such latter day shall in such year cease to be a public holiday in Kenya or the locality specified in the notice.

The Firearms Act (Cap. 114)

Section 2 which is intended to amend—

“approved carrier” means a carrier approved by the Commissioner of Police;

Section 27 which is intended to amend—

27. Importation and exportation of firearms

(8) For the purposes of this section, “authorized officer” means a police officer or customs officer authorized by the Commissioner of Police in writing to grant import and export permits under this section or a licensing officer appointed under section 3.

Section 29 which is intended to be amended—

29. Removal and transportation of firearms and ammunition within Kenya

(3) No removal permit shall be issued under this section authorizing the removal or transport of firearms or ammunition by road from one area to another, save with the general or specific authority of the Commissioner of Police.

Section 38 which it is intended to amend—

38. Disposal of firearms, etc.

(1) Where any firearm or ammunition has been held for a period exceeding three months in a firearms store maintained by the Kenya Police Force, the Commissioner of Police may order the destruction or other disposal of that firearm or ammunition together with any case, holster, strap, lanyard, cleaning equipment, spare part or other accessory packed, carried or stored with the firearm or ammunition.

(2) Before destruction or disposal under subsection (1) the Commissioner of Police shall take such steps as he deems possible and appropriate to give notice to the owner of the firearm or ammunition (if known) of his intention so to act, and subject thereto shall allow the owner a period of not less than two months within which to make arrangements to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Police for the disposal of the firearm or ammunition.

(3) In the event of a firearm or ammunition being sold by the Commissioner of Police or any person or body on his behalf, the proceeds of the sale, after deduction of the expenses of and incidental to the sale, shall be paid over to the owner or, if the owner cannot by the exercise of reasonable diligence be traced, shall be held on deposit for a period of three months and shall then be paid into the Consolidated Fund.

(4) Where the firearm or ammunition has been sold in bulk together with other firearms or ammunition in circumstances which prevent the actual proceeds and expenses from being separately identified, the proportions of the bulk proceeds and expenses attributable to the owner shall be assessed and determined by or under the directions of the Commissioner of Police.

Section 39 which is intended to amend—

39. Appeals in connection with disposal of firearms, etc.

(1) Any owner aggrieved by any act or omission done or made under section 38 may, within fourteen days of the receipt of notice, whether written or oral, of the act or omission or, in the absence of notice, within thirty days of the act or omission, appeal to the Minister, whose decision thereon shall be final.

The Official Secrets Act (Cap. 187)

Section 2 which it is intended to amend—

“court” means a subordinate court of the first class;

“telegraph apparatus” has the same meaning as in the Kenya Posts and Telecommunications Corporations Act (Cap. 411) (repealed) of the Community.

Section 6 which it is intended to amend—

6. Production of telegrams

(1) Where it appears to the Minister that it is expedient in the public interest to do so, he may, by warrant under his hand, require any person who owns or controls any telegraph apparatus used for the sending or receipt of telegrams to or from any place outside Kenya, to produce to him, or to any person named in the warrant, the originals and transcripts of all telegrams or of telegrams of any specified class or description or of telegrams sent from or addressed to any specified person or place, sent to or received from any place outside Kenya by means of any such telegraph apparatus and all other papers relating to any such telegram as aforesaid.

(2) Any person who, having been required under subsection (1) of this section to produce the originals and transcripts of telegrams, refuses or neglects to comply with such requirement, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year.

Section 10 which it is intended to amend—

10. Consent to prosecution

(1) A prosecution for an offence under this Act shall not be instituted except by or with the consent of the Attorney-General.
